

Mosaic Teaching Guide

Teaching Series: The Way of Wisdom

Teaching Four: Wisdom in Suffering

Job 2.7-9

So Satan went out from the presence of the LORD, and inflicted loathsome sores on Job from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. Job took a potsherd with which to scrape himself, and sat among the ashes. Then his wife said to him, “Do you still persist in your integrity? Curse God, and die.” But he said to her, “You speak as any foolish woman would speak. Shall we receive the good at the hand of God, and not receive the bad?” In all this Job did not sin with his lips.

Question for Everyone:

On a scale of 1-10, 1 being am hyper-planned and leave nothing to chance to 10 being I never plan and always welcome the adventure of chaos, what is your number?

Reckless Living

The World of the Book of Proverbs

Job’s World

Listening to the Whole Story

“Job offers us insight as to what it means live in robust sanity even in the midst of almost incomprehensible suffering.”

The Literary Structure of Job

How Job came to be Job

A Disturbing Story

The Question

Being the Resurrection by Peter Rollins